MEMBER REPORTS – Lynda Gonzalez reported that the Bloomington Women's Club met for their membership Luau on September 6th to welcome everyone back. The Women's Club has been meeting since 1922 and would like to encourage all women from Bloomington and surrounding areas to join and be active in their community. The Club Board meets every third Monday of the month at Ayala Park Community Center.

PUBLIC COMMENT-Dave Jayne discussed the numerous illegal vendors on the street. Requested Code Enforcement to come on weekends. He stated that the park is looking good but there are too many homeless but they will dump their beers when asked. He also mentioned that the food bank is desperately in need of food and that the local churches need to become involved. Christy Robinson is the contact for the Bloomington Neighborhood Center Food Bank. The number on the resource list is incorrect and should read 909-275-1305.

Dave Soto of the Bloomington Boosters announced the Booster 9/11 Memorial Event scheduled for 9/11/11 at 5 pm, not 6 pm as listed on flyer. Armistice Day (Veterans Day) is November 11, 2011 at 11 am in front of the monument. Honor those who have served their country. Any questions, pls call Corrine Soto. The Christmas Parade is titled Frosty's Christmas Dream. She has parade applications ready and request letters for donations, helpers, etc... It's not the Booster's parade but the Communities'. Each child is given a picture with Santa and gifts. Event is scheduled for December 3, 2011.
